The Pastrana beginner airbrush course is intended for students who are newcomers, or novices with limited or no experience in airbrushing; the basic principles of airbrushing are covered, along with drills and exercises for airbrush control. Those who have some limited experience in airbrushing and want to reinforce and strengthen their understanding, knowledge, and practice in this particular field are also welcome.

Alan began his own airbrush designs at the age of 15, later attending the prestigious Fashion Institute Of Technology in Manhattan, majoring in illustration. He received extensive training in life drawing, painting, portraiture work, color theory, composition, anatomy drawing, fine art, and fashion drawing. His academic instruction at F.I.T. influenced his appreciation of many classical and contemporary masters. His work was featured in the Under Pressure: Painting with Air (A Survey of Contemporary Airbrush Realism) exhibit at the Huntsville Museum of Art, October 24, 2021 through January 16, 2022. At the end of the class, students will leave with their own water gilded and finished frame.

Alan Shuptrine's accomplishments in master craftsmanship with gold leaf are in museums nationwide, and he is also nationally renowned for his sensitive and detailed paintings in watercolor and oil. For over 35 years, Shuptrine has honed and perfected his craft through countless hours of hands-on experience. Master Artist Workshops

Painting the Figure in the Landscape with Qiang Huang

Skill Level: All skill levels are welcome.

Thursday, August 17 – Sunday, August 20, 2023; 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

$600 members/$650 non-members

With this workshop, Qiang will introduce his approaches of adding figures into landscape paintings in oil. In general, painting the figure is much harder than other subject matter. Painters need to have adequate amount of training in anatomy, proportion, perspective, and skin tones to be able manage subtle variations in human forms. However, in landscapes, figures are suggested rather than literally painted. The workshop will emphasize on how to get the correct proportion of human forms into a landscape environment. He will introduce visual tools to make figure painting much easier. Qiang will also demonstrate his general strategies of landscape painting. The students will create storytelling paintings in an expressive style. Reference photographs will be used during the workshop.

Qiang Huang (pronounced as Chong Wong) was born and raised in Beijing, China and now lives in Austin, Texas. He has studied art from multiple master artists like David Leffel and Sherrie McGraw. His paintings show remarkable accuracy and expressive brush strokes. Since 2004 his paintings have been selected continuously for the 14th, 15th, 16th and 18th Oil Painters of America's National Juried Exhibitions. American Artist Magazine has featured his teaching on the summer issue of the Workshop. For more information, visit qh-art.com.

Students paint in the afternoons, after which Couch critiques all the day's completed work, including his own. Anyone 18 or older is eligible to enroll. An optional slide show/lecture on the principles of design — including color and composition — will be presented in the afternoon of the first day.

Couch received a bachelor's degree in art from the University of Tampa and did further work at Pratt Institute in New York. Simultaneously, he worked as an artist for Associated Press and freelance illustrator while studying watercolor painting with Edgar A. Whitney, ANA. His first book, Watercolor: You Can Do It, became North Light Publishing's all-time best-selling book on painting. It has been the textbook for several college art departments and has been translated into Chinese for markets overseas. A follow-up book on technique went through three printings and was translated into Japanese for that market. A third, Tony Couch's Keys to Successful Painting was also published by North Light. His watercolor instruction articles have appeared in Palette Talk, The American Artist, Australian Artist, North Light Watercolor Magic and "the artist" magazines. His work is included in twelve art instruction articles and publications by other artists in the US, Australia and the UK. He has produced 10 "How To" videos and DVDs, some of which are used in colleges and in various state educational systems via television. He conducts workshops throughout the US and abroad. Couch has won over 70 national awards and his work has been included in three annual exhibitions of the National Academy of Design. For more information, visit tonycouch.com.
