37th Anniversary YAM 2024: Exhibition for Youth Art Month

February 25 - March 31

Adtran, Jurenko, Thurber and Guild Galleries

This annual exhibition will present artworks by area students in kindergarten through grade 12.

Youth Art Month is promoted and observed in March by the National Art Education Association and by the Huntsville-Madison County Art Education Association. It emphasizes the value of art education for all children and encourages public support for quality school art programs.

The Visual Arts Achievement Program

February 25 • Great Hall

A program of the Alabama State Council on the Arts, The Visual Arts Achievement (VAA) Program recognizes 15 middle school and high school students for their achievements in art. The Huntsville Museum of Art is the local VAA District V sponsor. The award-winning works will subsequently be a part of an exhibition with other regional winners in April with the Alabama State Council on the Arts.

Congressional Art Competition

February 25 - March 31
Adtran Gallery

One high school work is chosen from Congressman Dale Strong's Fifth District of Alabama and will be sent to Washington, DC, to be displayed for one year.
