Exhibits Closing

Looking at the Collection: Audubon Quadrupeds

Closing this weekend on Sunday, June 19

John James Audubon (American, 1785 – 1851), Jaguar (Felis onca), hand colored lithograph. Printed by J.T. Bowen, Philadelphia, 1846. HMA Permanent Collection, Gift of Mr. & Mrs. William H. Told, Jr.

Looking at the Collection: Audubon Quadrupeds closes this Sunday, June 19! This exhibition showcases a selection of original Audubon prints from our collection that document the animals of North America. The scientifically accurate prints are part of Audubon's second project, The Viviparous Quadrupeds of North America, hand-printed and colored by J.T. Bowen of Philadelphia.

Thursday, Aug. 11 from 6 to 8:30 p.m. & Friday, Aug. 12 - Saturday, Aug. 13 from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Gain experience with the great tool of the potter's wheel. Demonstrations will include wheel throwing, building off the wheel, and decoration such as slip-decorating, stamp-making, stamping, and more. Come, experiment, work with earthenware clay, and share ideas. Personalized instruction will enhance your learning experience. Take home a group of bisque-fired pieces showing your exploration in clay and a collection of new skills.

Legacy Art Journaling with Leslie Wood

Friday, Aug. 26 & Saturday, Aug. 27 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Leslie Wood is a mixed media artist from Lacey's Spring, Alabama. Her work varies from mixed media and art journaling to sculpture and jewelry making. In this workshop, explore how to transform an old book into a legacy art journal. Use a combination of written and visual imagery to capture thoughts, memories, and images of your ancestors for your own legacy stories.
