Supply List

Note: The instructor has suggested the following art materials for you to acquire for your class.

High School & Adult Classes

Acrylics: Abstract Extravaganza! Friday & Saturday, August 7 & 8 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
(one-hour lunch break each day)

Please bring with you per Lucy:

Your paint:

Bring whatever acrylic paint you have. I use Golden fluid acrylics almost exclusively, but I do use other brands and viscosities of paint from time to time. I encourage you to try fluid acrylics if you haven't already and bring a few colors to class.

Bring your favorite colors, black, white and primary red, yellow, and blue. (We won't all be painting the same thing.)

Bring a fluorescent paint if possible. My favorite is Luminous Opera a heavy body paint made by Holbein.

Brushes:

Flats and brights one inch and one half inch
Any others you want to bring.

Glue Stick

A roll of painter's tape. Try to get the one for "sharp edges" that is about an inch wide

A pad of mixed media or acrylic paper at least 11x14

A gel medium or a matte medium in a tub. You should be able to find mediums easily at Michael's or Hobby Lobby or Amazon. It doesn't matter the brand. Anything will work.

Acrylic paint markers, such as Posca. Varied colors or just one color is fine. The Museum has good many of these that we can use too.

See supply list on next page.

Collage paper/artist paper

Various colors and patterns. Bring several sheets.

Just pick the ones that grab you! I tend to order mine online from Paper Source.

You can also bring sheet music, old sewing patterns, book pages that are colorfast, etc.

Don't bring magazine pages.

A long narrow canvas or wood panel. I like 6x36. You can find them multiple places. Here is one example:

6" X 36"

6x24 is fine too.
