YAM:
EXHIBITION FOR YOUTH ART MONTH

March 14th-April 18th 2027

Youth Art Month is celebrated annually in March to highlight the importance of art education for children and to foster public support for high-quality school art programs. In Huntsville, this event is hosted by The Huntsville Museum of Art's Museum Academy. Youth Art Month also serves as a platform to showcase the unique skills developed through visual arts experiences—skills that cannot be gained through other curriculum areas. The event is supported by the National Art Education Association, Alabama Art Education Association, Alabama State Department of Education, Alabama Arts Alliance, and the Huntsville-Madison County Art Education Association.

This year marks the 40th annual Youth Art Month exhibition at the Huntsville Museum of Art, where nearly 200 vibrant artworks by students from kindergarten through 12th grade will be on display. These pieces represent schools from Huntsville City, Madison City, Madison County, Athens City, Limestone County, Decatur City, and Scottsboro City.

In addition to the student artwork, the exhibition includes the Congressional Art Competition and the VAA: Visual Arts Achievement Program District V Blue Ribbon Finalists. The award-winning works from VAA District V will be displayed at the Alabama State Council on the Arts in Montgomery, alongside other regional winners from across the state. The winning piece from the Congressional Art Competition, selected from the 5th Congressional District, will be showcased for a year at the U.S. Capitol.

We invite the community to celebrate the talents of North Alabama's young artists at the Huntsville Museum of Art on Sunday, March 14th, 2027. Admission will be free that day as part of the Community FREE Day program. Award presentations for the VAA Blue Ribbon Finalists and the Congressional Art Competition will take place in the Great Hall. Additionally, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m., visitors can enjoy live artist demonstrations in the galleries, where artists will showcase various techniques and work in their chosen mediums.
